

SOP invested for new machines

February 01, 2016

Specialized Oilfield Products LLC expanded their machining and fabrication capability by investing for new machines which are state of the art machines design. It is now fully up and running with the manufacture of wireline tooling, gauges, drift, subs, re-threading, re-dressing of tooling and various other machining projects.

